

I am in support of Low Power FM radio because of the variety of programming it offers. We have two stations nearby and the music that is played is great! I don't hear the same songs over and over ad nauseum on these stations, and the advertising is local with information that I need. Thank you for taking the time to read this.